

TESTIMONIALS

Since 2013, the National Dropout Prevention Center has periodically utilized Dr. Woodley's expertise as a trainer, conference presenter, and consultant. She has delivered keynote presentations on school improvement strategies at our national conferences, has advised other school leaders, and has served on teams to analyze and advise administrators of other school districts to resolve challenging issues. In these settings, I have observed Dr. Woodley to effectively guide principals of struggling schools on issues of instruction, staffing, student services, and school climate.- Dr. Sandy Addis, Chairman of the National Dropout Prevention Center

Dr. Woodley leadership journey has provided her with numerous experiences in multiple facets of leadership. She has a proven track record of being a change agent in schools, all of which have made a positive impact in working with students and staff. I have called upon her to serve as a consultant for school improvement during my leadership with the Georgia Department of Education and Cognia.- Dr. Linda Massenburg Director Institutional Improvement Cognia

Dr. Woodley was recognized as the 2022 First Call's Community Champion Award for her leadership in Whole Child Supports building a trauma informed school system focusing on the social and emotional needs of students. The result have been life changing.- First Call of Kansas City

I want to thank you for sharing your story and serving as the keynote speaker at our District Teacher Institute. Our educators truly benefited from your story and your work as an educator. You are such a positive role model. I appreciate your willingness to share your story and the work that you do everyday to make this world a better place for our children. – Casey Davis Assistant Superintendent Tallapoosa County School District
